A mighty roar greeted Mathewson as he faced the Pirates for the first time. By me and Carey were easy victims, and Hyatt put up a fly for Devore. The sun was blazing in the little fielder's eyes and after a run he squarely muffed the ball. Hyatt sprinted to second on this mistake and scored on Hans Wagner's cracking two bagger just inside the left foul line. Miller followed with a hot single to right, and Murray, with a magnificent throw to the plate, nailed Wagner in spite of the Dutchinan's attempt to knock the ball out of Meyers's hands.

Crandall was a mark for more solid hitting by the visitors in the ninth inning. Carey singled, instelled to third on Wagner's third safe hit and scored on Miller's force. Wilson smashed the ball to the extreme limits of left centre field for three bases and Miller spiked the home plate, making the score 7 to 1.

A faint cheer greeted Becker as he came up in the Giants turn, the crowd remembering his three bagger in the eleventh inning on Monday. Becker was noticed of a possible two bagger, however, when Miller made a miraculous bare nanded stop and slid into first base ahead of him. Herzog singled to left and so did Meyers. Carey made a fearfully wild throw to catch Herzog on the way to third and the latter scored. Shafer fanned and Crandall singled. But it was all over when Merkle's long fly settled in Wilson's outstretched hands.

> Drucke Goes to Toronto. Louis Drucke, who has been one of the Giants' pitchers since the spring of 1910, was turned over to the Toronto International League club yesterday. was hurt in a subway accident last year and recovered damages, but he hasn't been of much use since. He probably will get plenty of work with Toronto and if he regains his form McGraw may call him back in the fall. Southern League.
